Hounslow Heath Management 2000 to 2016

Site Description

- 124 hectares including golf course and the River Crane LNR 81 hectares
- Clay cap on eastern side of site overlying land fill, mixture of reconstituted gravels on western half of site.
- Eastern side of site comprising heathland and acid grassland habitat mixed with oak, birch and hawthorn, bramble scrub and neutral grassland.
- · Western side of site neutral grassland and hawthorn and bramble scrub areas of willow and hedgerows

- Green lung for 40,000 surrounding residents
- Primarily used by dog walkers also has green way route through centre of site daily traffic of commuters
- Under 1mile from Heathrow
- Estimated foot fall around 200,000 visits per year
- Utilised by army for training runs etc
- Operating ranger team and Friends of group

Communities/species of importance

• Scrub and woodland bird populations

Adders and other reptiles

Plants

Management over last 15 years

Hay cutting

Tree coppicing and removal

Volunteers

Flailing

Hedges

Hibernacula creation

Habitats and effects (heath)

Neutral scrub and grassland

grassland

bramble

Issues effecting adders on site

- Dog interference
- Fires
- Lack of management, succession
- Lack of understanding by local populace
- Hibernacula locations and substrate
- Site size and connectivity
- Island effects
- Litter, vandalism

Fly tipping and litter

Introduced 42 snakes present estimated numbers well over 200